

Welcome To Starr Resources, Inc.

Serving Upstate SC including Greenville, Spartanburg, Anderson and Greenwood areas..

Starr Resources is one of Upstate South Carolina's largest Home Improvement contractors, serving the Greenville, Spartanburg, Anderson, and Asheville areas. Established in 1995, Starr Resources specializes in planning, purchasing, and installing Commercial and Residential exterior and interior home improvement projects. We devote all of our effort to quality service and enjoy an excellent reputation for quality work and business integrity.

Our team of professionals build from the ground up, or take existing homes and renovate them to like new condition. Have a historic home you wish to restore to it's original stature? The Starr Resources team will work with you to ensure that the renovations are as historically accurate as possible, with the same level of pride of workmanship that was exhibited by the original builders.
